NSS volunteers from Omega PG College conducted an informative awareness program on digital transactions in Edulabad Village. The event, held on [], aimed to empower residents with knowledge about the benefits and procedures of conducting transactions digitally, thereby promoting financial inclusion and digital literacy.

The program commenced with an introductory session, where volunteers explained the importance of embracing digital transactions in today's rapidly evolving world. Participants were enlightened about the various digital payment methods available, including mobile banking, internet banking, e-wallets, and UPI (Unified Payments Interface).

Interactive sessions were conducted to familiarize participants with the step-by-step process of conducting digital transactions securely. Volunteers demonstrated how to set up digital payment accounts, transfer funds, pay bills, and make online purchases. Additionally, safety measures such as password protection, two-factor authentication, and avoiding phishing scams were emphasized to ensure secure transactions.

Participants were encouraged to ask questions and clarify doubts, fostering an open and engaging learning environment. Pamphlets and informational materials were distributed to serve as handy references for further understanding.

The awareness program received positive feedback from the residents of Edulabad Village, with many expressing newfound confidence in adopting digital payment methods. By imparting essential knowledge and skills, the NSS volunteers contributed to bridging the digital divide and promoting financial inclusivity in the community.

On the occasion of National Safety Day, NSS volunteers from Omega PG College-MBA organized a comprehensive Fire Safety Program aimed at raising awareness about fire prevention and emergency preparedness. The event, held on 28th April 2023, focused on equipping participants with essential knowledge and skills to mitigate fire hazards and respond effectively in case of emergencies.

The program commenced with an inaugural session where the significance of fire safety was emphasized. A brief overview of the National Safety Day and its theme was provided, highlighting the importance of fostering a culture of safety in all aspects of life.

Interactive sessions were conducted by fire safety experts and trained professionals, covering various aspects of fire safety, including:

1. Identification of Fire Hazards: Participants were educated about common fire hazards in different settings, such as homes, workplaces, and public spaces, and how to recognize them.
2. Fire Prevention Measures: Practical tips and best practices for preventing fires, such as proper storage of flammable materials, electrical safety measures, and smoke alarm maintenance, were shared with the audience.
3. Fire Evacuation Drills: Demonstrations and simulations of fire evacuation procedures were conducted to familiarize participants with the appropriate actions to take in case of a fire emergency, including evacuation routes and assembly points.
4. Fire Extinguisher Training: Hands-on training sessions on the proper use of fire extinguishers were provided, enabling participants to gain confidence in handling firefighting equipment effectively.

The Fire Safety Program received enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff members of Omega PG College-MBA, as well as members of the local community. Through this initiative, the NSS volunteers aimed to instill a culture of safety consciousness and preparedness, contributing to the well-being and security of individuals and communities.

The NSS cell of Omega PG College-MBA organized a commendable initiative of providing free health check-ups to the students, faculty, staff, and local community members on 24th Feb 2022. This initiative aimed to promote health awareness, encourage preventive healthcare practices, and contribute to the well-being of the community.

The event commenced at 24 Feb 2022 in the college premises, where dedicated medical professionals and volunteers collaborated to facilitate the health check-up process. The following key activities were undertaken during the event:

1. Registration: Volunteers efficiently managed the registration process, ensuring smooth flow and organization of participants.
2. Medical Screening: Qualified healthcare professionals conducted comprehensive health assessments, including blood pressure measurement, BMI calculation, blood sugar testing, and basic health consultations.
3. Health Education: In addition to providing individual health check-ups, informative sessions on various health topics such as nutrition, hygiene, and lifestyle management were conducted to raise awareness and promote healthy habits among the participants.
4. Referral Services: Participants requiring further medical attention or specialized care were provided with appropriate referrals to nearby healthcare facilities.

The free health check-up camp received an overwhelming response from the college community and residents of the surrounding areas. A total of individuals availed themselves of the health services offered, reflecting the significant impact of the initiative.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Omega PG College organized a Harita Haram program on . The initiative aimed to contribute to environmental conservation and promote greenery by conducting a plantation drive in the college campus and nearby village. Harita Haram, meaning "Green Garland," is a large-scale tree plantation program initiated by the government of Telangana to increase the green cover and mitigate the effects of climate change.

The Harita Haram program commenced with a brief orientation session highlighting the significance of tree plantation in combating climate change and preserving biodiversity. Following the orientation, NSS volunteers, along with students, faculty, and staff members, engaged in the following activities:

- 1. Identification of Planting Sites: Volunteers surveyed the college campus and nearby village to identify suitable sites for plantation.
- 2. Procurement of Saplings: Saplings of indigenous tree species were procured from local nurseries or government authorities.
- 3. Plantation Drive: Participants planted saplings in designated areas, adhering to proper planting techniques and spacing guidelines.
- 4. Maintenance and Care: Volunteers committed to nurturing the planted saplings by regularly watering, weeding, and monitoring their growth.

On September 8th, 2022, NSS volunteers from Omega PG College collaborated with ZPHS School in Edulabad Village to celebrate International Literacy Day. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of literacy and promote educational opportunities for all.

The day commenced with an inaugural ceremony, where students, teachers, and NSS volunteers gathered to highlight the significance of literacy in individual empowerment and societal development. Various activities were organized throughout the day, including:

1. Educational Workshops: Interactive workshops were conducted to enhance students' literacy skills and foster a love for reading. Topics covered included reading comprehension, writing skills, and the importance of lifelong learning.

2. Book Donation Drive: As part of the event, a book donation drive was organized to provide students with access to a diverse range of reading materials. Donated books were distributed among the students to encourage regular reading habits and expand their knowledge base.

3. Awareness Campaigns: NSS volunteers conducted awareness campaigns in the village to emphasize the benefits of literacy and promote enrollment in educational programs. Information regarding adult literacy classes and skill development initiatives was shared with community members.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, teachers, and villagers alike, fostering a sense of collective responsibility towards promoting literacy and education in the community. Through collaborative efforts, the NSS volunteers and ZPHS School reaffirmed their commitment to bridging the literacy gap and empowering individuals to realize their full potential.

Bathukamma is floral festival celebrated predominantly in Telangana and some parts of Andhra Pradesh. Every year this festival is celebrated as per Sathavahana calendar for nine days starting Mahalaya Amavasya (also known as Mahalaya Amavasya or Pitru Amavasya) till Durgashtami, usually in September- October. This colorful floral festival of Telangana that symbolizes culture and identity has been celebrated at OMEG with grandeur and enthusiasm amidst the lush green nature in the campus on 09th October at 1:00pm.

The women staff and the girl students emblazoned the premises with beautiful exotic flowers. The celebration manifested the eminence of nature, united spirit of the OMEG, and the audacious fervor of the women staff and girls. All OMEG Students & Ladies Staff have Actively Participated in the Bathukamma making process and in the Energetic Bathukamma Dance.

All the Departments of OMEG have actively participated in the bathukamma decoration Competition followed by the Dance of the Gorgeously dressed women and girls for the resonating bathukamma Songs the Dances accentuated the festive mood symbolizing the zeal and undaunted spirit of OMEG.

The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, initiated by the Government of India, aims to create a cleaner and healthier environment for all citizens. NSS Cell Omega, understanding the importance of cleanliness and sanitation, organized an event dedicated to this noble cause on our campus premises.

Activities:

- Campus Clean-up Drive: Volunteers gathered early in the morning equipped with gloves, masks, and cleaning tools to begin the clean-up drive. Various areas of the campus were targeted, including classrooms, corridors, lawns, and common areas.
- Awareness Campaign: Alongside the clean-up activities, an awareness campaign was conducted to educate students and staff about the importance of cleanliness and proper waste disposal. Posters, banners, and pamphlets were distributed to spread the message effectively.
- Tree Plantation: In addition to cleaning efforts, a tree plantation drive was organized to contribute to environmental sustainability. Saplings of indigenous species were planted across the campus, symbolizing our commitment to a greener future.
- Interaction with the Community: Volunteers also engaged with the local community to garner support and participation in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. Through discussions and interactions, the importance of collective action in maintaining cleanliness was emphasized.

NSS Cell at Omega PG College-MBA recently spearheaded a commendable plantation drive within the college campus premises, marking a significant step towards environmental conservation and sustainable development. The initiative, undertaken on 14 Sep 2021, witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and administrative staff alike.

Under the guidance of dedicated NSS volunteers, the event commenced with a brief orientation session emphasizing the importance of afforestation in combating climate change and preserving biodiversity. Following this, participants were provided with saplings of indigenous tree species suitable for the local ecosystem.

The campus grounds transformed into a vibrant hub of activity as students and staff members enthusiastically planted the saplings, demonstrating their commitment to environmental stewardship. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of camaraderie and purpose as everyone worked together towards a common goal.

The plantation drive not only contributed to enhancing the green cover of the college campus but also served as a platform for fostering environmental awareness and instilling a sense of responsibility towards nature among the participants.

As the saplings took root, they symbolized not just the growth of trees but also the growth of a collective consciousness towards environmental sustainability. The success of this initiative underscores the power of collective action in addressing pressing environmental challenges and paves the way for future endeavors aimed at nurturing and preserving our planet for generations to come.

Omega PG College- MBA NSS Cell has conducted "Awareness on Sanitation" on 23-09-2021 at Marripallygudam Village. We started at OMEGA Campus by 9:30 AM and reached there by 9:45 AM. We divided in two groups and started the awareness program at 10:00 AM. Mrs Akhila has appreciated the idea given by the students. We planned this event with our motto "Health Is Wealth" and made this event successful.

We started at 9:30 AM at Campus and we reached there by 10AM. Immediately after reaching the destination we had spread into teams for the awareness program among the villagers. We took all the necessary pamphlets to the camp. HOD MBA advised us to carry few placards with those we can pictorially explain about the sanitation helpful for better life.

When we went through village, we observed some areas in the village where an urgency of sanitation is needed. We went to the people located there and explained them about importance of sanitation. And also, we have gone to many of the people to make them aware of the disease that caused due to improper sanitation. We explained villagers need of sanitation to keep their village clean and disease free.

Dr C.S PATTANIAK, OMEGA PG COLLEGE-MBA appreciate the volunteers. The Programme was presided by Dr K Madhu Babu, Programme Coordinator, OMEGA NSS, The Programme was led by Dr Mohd Abdul Hafeez, Coordinator NSS.

OMEGA PG COLLEGE - MBA, MBA Department, National Service Scheme (NSS) has conducted "Legal literacy –Social Justice" on the occasion of "National Consumer Rights Day".

NSS volunteers generally work in villages, slums, and voluntary agencies to complete 120 hours of regular activities during an academic year. As per the fundamental principles of the National Service Scheme, a volunteer is expected to remain in constant touch with the community. Hence, it is of vital importance that a particular village/slum is selected for the implementation of NSS programs. On Account of National Consumer Rights Day, MBA Department of OMEGA conducted an awareness program on consumer education at Marripallygudam and explains the rights of the consumers and also explains that, to which authorities they have to approach to seek relief in case of consumer disputes or defects of the goods and deficiency of services.

All the Volunteer of MBA Department of OMEGA, NSS Coordinator Dr K Madhu Babu and Dr Mohd Abdul Hafeez had participated in the programme.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers, in collaboration with Rachakonda Police, organized a comprehensive Traffic Awareness Program aimed at promoting road safety and responsible driving habits among the community. The event, held on 20th January 2020, encompassed an enlightening awareness talk by Rachakonda Police officials followed by an Essay Writing Competition.

Activities:

1. Awareness Talk by Rachakonda Police: The program commenced with an informative session led by esteemed Rachakonda Police officials. They addressed the audience on various aspects of traffic rules, regulations, and the importance of adhering to road safety measures. Through real-life examples and engaging discussions, the volunteers and attendees gained valuable insights into the significance of responsible driving behavior.

2. Essay Writing Competition: Following the awareness talk, an Essay Writing Competition was conducted to encourage participants to reflect on their understanding of road safety issues and articulate their thoughts effectively. Topics such as "The Role of Youth in Ensuring Road Safety" and "Challenges Faced by Pedestrians and Cyclists" were explored, stimulating critical thinking and constructive dialogue among the participants.

The Traffic Awareness Program organized by NSS volunteers in association with Rachakonda Police on 20th January 2020 proved to be a valuable endeavor in promoting road safety awareness and fostering a culture of responsible driving habits. Through informative sessions and interactive engagements, the event contributed towards building a safer and more conscientious community on the roads.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is a noble initiative aimed at fostering social responsibility and community engagement among the youth. Omega PG College - MBA, recognizing the importance of health awareness in rural areas, organized a Health Awareness Camp in Chandupatlaguda Village on 22nd July 2019. The camp was meticulously planned and executed by enthusiastic NSS volunteers who were committed to making a positive impact on the community.

Objectives:

1. To raise awareness about various health issues prevalent in rural areas.
2. To educate villagers about preventive measures and healthy lifestyle practices.

Activities:

Health Education Workshops: NSS volunteers conducted interactive workshops focusing on topics such as personal hygiene, sanitation, nutrition, and the importance of regular health check-ups. These sessions were designed to impart practical knowledge and empower the villagers to take charge of their health.

Interactive Sessions: NSS volunteers engaged in one-on-one interactions with villagers to address their health concerns and queries. Information pamphlets and brochures were distributed to further reinforce the messages conveyed during the workshops.

The Health Awareness Camp conducted by NSS Volunteers of Omega PG College - MBA at Chandupatlaguda Village was a resounding success. Through collaborative efforts and dedication, the camp achieved its objectives of raising awareness about health issues and promoting preventive healthcare practices. The positive impact generated by this initiative underscores the importance of community-driven initiatives in addressing healthcare challenges in rural areas

The NSS unit of Omega PG College-MBA organized a cleanliness drive on the college campus on 31st July 2019. The objective of the event was to instill a sense of responsibility towards the environment and foster a culture of cleanliness among the students.

The cleanliness drive commenced at 9:00 AM with a brief orientation session led by the NSS coordinators. Volunteers were divided into groups and assigned specific areas of the campus for cleaning. The activities included:

- Litter Collection: Volunteers diligently collected litter from various parts of the campus, including classrooms, corridors, and outdoor areas
- Waste Segregation: Another group focused on segregating the collected waste into recyclable and non-recyclable categories, promoting eco-friendly practices.
- Awareness Campaign: Concurrently, volunteers conducted an awareness campaign among students and faculty, highlighting the importance of cleanliness and waste management.

Achievements:

The NSS cleaning drive at Omega PG College-MBA was a resounding success, with significant achievements:

Cleaner Campus: The concerted efforts of the volunteers resulted in a visibly cleaner and more hygienic campus environment.

The NSS cleaning drive at Omega PG College-MBA exemplified the spirit of community service and environmental stewardship. By actively participating in the event, students demonstrated their commitment to creating a cleaner and greener campus. The success of this initiative underscores the importance of collective action in addressing environmental challenges and promoting sustainable practices.

On 05th August 2019, NSS Volunteers from Omega PG College-MBA conducted a commendable initiative titled "Say No to Plastic" at Chandupatlaguda village. The campaign aimed to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of plastic usage on the environment and advocate for the adoption of eco-friendly alternatives.

The event commenced with an enlightening session where volunteers elucidated the adverse impact of plastic pollution on ecosystems, wildlife, and human health. Through engaging presentations and interactive discussions, community members were educated about the importance of reducing plastic consumption and embracing sustainable practices.

Following the awareness session, volunteers led a cleanup drive in collaboration with local residents to remove plastic waste from public areas, including streets, parks, and water bodies. The collective effort resulted in the collection and proper disposal of a significant amount of plastic litter, thereby contributing to the beautification of the village and the preservation of its natural surroundings.

Additionally, the campaign facilitated the distribution of eco-friendly alternatives such as cloth bags and stainless steel water bottles to encourage the transition away from single-use plastics. Through these initiatives, the NSS volunteers aimed to instill a sense of environmental consciousness and promote responsible behaviour towards waste management among the villagers.

The "Say No to Plastic" campaign organized by NSS Volunteers Omega PG College-MBA at Chandupatlaguda village epitomizes the spirit of community service and environmental stewardship. By fostering awareness and actively addressing the issue of plastic pollution, the initiative serves as a catalyst for positive change and underscores the collective responsibility towards building a sustainable future.

The Harita Haram Program, organized by the NSS unit of Omega PG College - MBA, took place on 30th August 2019. This initiative aimed to contribute to the larger environmental conservation efforts by planting trees and spreading awareness about the importance of greenery in our ecosystem.

Activities:

1. Tree Plantation Drive: NSS volunteers enthusiastically participated in the tree plantation drive. Various species of saplings were provided, and the volunteers meticulously planted them in designated areas around the college campus. This activity not only added greenery to the surroundings but also enhanced the aesthetic appeal of the campus.

2. Awareness Campaign: Alongside the plantation drive, an awareness campaign was conducted to educate students and staff about the significance of trees in maintaining ecological balance. Posters, banners, and informative sessions were utilized to highlight the benefits of tree plantation and the detrimental effects of deforestation.

3. Interactive Sessions: To foster a deeper understanding of environmental issues, interactive sessions were organized where volunteers and participants engaged in discussions about sustainable living practices, the importance of biodiversity, and ways to combat climate change.

The Harita Haram Program organized by the NSS volunteers of Omega PG College - MBA was a resounding success, exemplifying the spirit of service and environmental consciousness. The event not only facilitated tree plantation but also served as a platform for fostering awareness and collective action towards environmental conservation. Such initiatives play a crucial role in nurturing a greener and healthier planet for present and future generations.

On the auspicious occasion of National Education Day, the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers embarked on a noble initiative to promote education and empower village children through the distribution of books and stationery. This endeavor aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Education Minister of independent India, and underscore the significance of education in nation-building.

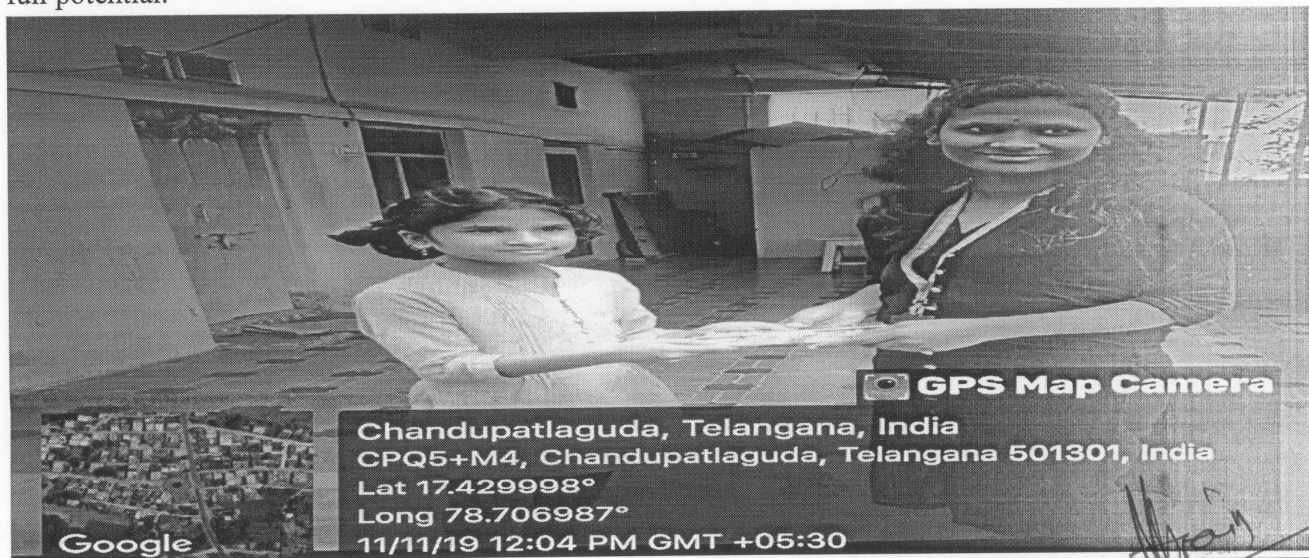

Activities:

1. Preparation and Procurement: In preparation for the event, NSS volunteers meticulously planned and procured a diverse range of educational materials including textbooks, notebooks, pencils, erasers, and other stationery items essential for academic pursuits.

2. Community Outreach: On 11th November 2019, NSS volunteers, accompanied by faculty members, ventured into the village to distribute the educational materials to deserving children. The team conducted door-to-door visits and engaged with families to identify children who would benefit most from the initiative.

3. Distribution Ceremony: A formal distribution ceremony was organized wherein NSS volunteers handed over the books and stationery to the village children with heartfelt wishes for their academic success. The event was marked by expressions of gratitude and appreciation from the children and their families.

Empowerment through Education: The distribution of books and stationery served as a catalyst for empowering village children with the tools necessary to pursue their educational aspirations and unlock their full potential.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Volunteer Omega PG College - MBA, in its continuous endeavor to serve the community, organized a Blood Donation Camp on November 11th, 2019. The camp aimed to contribute to the noble cause of saving lives by facilitating blood donation.

Activities:

- 1. Pre-camp Promotion: The NSS volunteers conducted extensive promotion on-campus and through social media platforms to raise awareness about the event. Posters, flyers, and digital media were utilized to reach out to the target audience.
- 2. Registration and Screening: On the day of the event, registration desks were set up to facilitate the smooth registration process for donors. Trained medical staff conducted thorough screening procedures to ensure the eligibility of donors.
- 3. Blood Donation: Donors who cleared the screening process proceeded to the blood donation area. The donation process was carried out with utmost care and adherence to medical protocols to guarantee the safety of donors.
- 4. Refreshments and Post-donation Care: Refreshments were provided to donors post-donation to help them regain their strength. Additionally, informational pamphlets were distributed to educate donors about post-donation care and the significance of their contribution.
- 5. Documentation and Feedback: Detailed documentation of the event, including the number of donors, units of blood collected, and feedback from participants, was compiled for record-keeping and future reference.

The Blood Donation Camp was a resounding success, thanks to the collective efforts of NSS volunteers, organizers, donors, and medical staff. By actively participating in such initiatives, the college community reaffirmed its commitment to serving society and saving lives. The event not only provided a platform for voluntary blood donation but also fostered a sense of social responsibility among the participants.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers from Omega PG College, along with faculty members, organized a vibrant celebration of Children's Day at the Primary School in Edulabad. The event aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first Prime Minister, and to foster the spirit of joy and creativity among the young minds.

The day commenced with an array of engaging activities designed to celebrate the innocence and exuberance of childhood. Various competitions were organized, ranging from drawing and painting to singing and dancing, catering to the diverse talents and interests of the school children.

The NSS volunteers, with their infectious enthusiasm and dedication, actively participated in coordinating the competitions, ensuring smooth conduct and fostering a supportive environment for the children.

Highlights:

Drawing and Painting Competition: The artistic flair of the children was showcased in a vibrant display of colors and creativity as they expressed their imagination on canvases.

Singing and Dancing Performances: The stage came alive with the rhythmic beats and melodious tunes as the children showcased their talents in singing and dancing.

Distribution of Gifts and Prizes: As a token of appreciation and encouragement, the NSS volunteers, along with faculty members, distributed gifts and prizes to the winners of the competitions. The gleeful faces of the children lit up with joy as they received their rewards, motivating them to continue pursuing their passions and talents.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Volunteer Omega PG College, in collaboration with Win Vision, organized an eye check-up camp on 21st Nov 2019 at Omega PG College premises. The event aimed to promote eye health awareness and provide free eye examinations to individuals from the surrounding community.

Event Highlights:

The eye check-up camp commenced at 21st Nov 2019 with an inaugural ceremony, graced by distinguished guests, including representatives from Omega PG College and Win Vision. The event began with an informative session on the significance of maintaining good eye health and the common eye ailments prevalent in the community.

Following the inaugural session, trained optometrists and medical professionals from Win Vision conducted comprehensive eye examinations for the attendees. The examinations encompassed visual acuity tests, intraocular pressure measurements, and assessments for common eye conditions such as refractive errors, cataracts, and glaucoma.

Moreover, participants received personalized guidance on eye care practices and were educated about preventive measures to safeguard their vision. Those requiring prescription eyeglasses were provided with free consultations and were facilitated with subsidized eyeglasses through the collaboration with Win Vision.

Community Participation:

The eye check-up camp witnessed a remarkable turnout from the local community, comprising individuals from diverse age groups and socio-economic backgrounds. The active participation of community members demonstrated their keen interest in availing themselves of the healthcare services offered through such initiatives.

In conclusion, the Eye Check-Up Camp organized by NSS Volunteer Omega PG College in collaboration with Win Vision emerged as a resounding success, exemplifying the spirit of community service and social responsibility.

On 18th August 2018, NSS volunteers from Omega PG College-MBA organized a plantation drive in Chandupatlaguda village, Ghatkesar, as part of their commitment to environmental conservation and community welfare. The event aimed to address ecological concerns and promote green initiatives for a sustainable future.

Under the guidance of faculty members, enthusiastic volunteers gathered in the village to plant a diverse range of saplings, including native trees and medicinal plants. Through hands-on participation, they contributed to enhancing the green cover of the village while also fostering a sense of environmental stewardship among the local community.

The plantation drives not only beautified the landscape but also provided numerous ecological benefits, such as improved air quality, soil conservation, and biodiversity enhancement. Additionally, it served as a platform for raising awareness about the importance of tree plantation and the role of individuals in combating climate change.

The collaborative efforts of NSS volunteers, along with the support of villagers and local authorities, made the plantation drive a resounding success. It exemplified the spirit of service and solidarity in working towards a greener, healthier planet for present and future generations.

On 26th October 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) of OMEGA PG COLLEGE-MBA organized a Free Eye Screening Camp in collaboration with Win Vision. The camp aimed to promote eye health awareness and provide access to essential eye care services for students, faculty, and non-teaching staff.

Under the guidance of dedicated NSS volunteers and in partnership with Win Vision, a team of qualified optometrists conducted comprehensive eye examinations for participants. The camp offered a range of services including vision testing, screening for common eye conditions, and personalized consultations.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from members of the college community, who availed themselves of the opportunity to prioritize their eye health. Through informative sessions and one-on-one interactions with optometrists, participants gained valuable insights into maintaining optimal eye health and received guidance on addressing any existing visual impairments.

The Free Eye Check-up Camp underscored the NSS's commitment to promoting holistic well-being and facilitating access to essential healthcare services. By fostering a culture of proactive health management, the initiative contributed to enhancing the quality of life and ensuring the overall welfare of the college community.

NSS Volunteers of OMEGA has conducted the SAPLING DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMME on 14/11/2018 at Chandupatlaguda village, NSS Volunteers started from the campus at 10.30 AM in the college bus after reaching the village NSS volunteer along with faculty members divided into 8 groups and selected different streets.

Some of the volunteers had visited every house and distributed samplings and made them aware of the importance of trees and the adverse effect of deforestation. Most of the villagers showed great interest towards planting trees and, they gave an assurance that they will take care of them.

Some of the villagers interacted with the volunteers and shared their feelings and problems with them. Our volunteers listened to their problems and made them feel comfortable to make them happy by giving a hope that they will pass all the problems in the village to the Panchayat & Govt. to take necessary action to solve the problems in the village.

Programme ended at 1.00 PM all the NSS volunteer boarded the bus and back to the college by 2.00 PM. Students felt very happy after the programme and they are very much excited to do such a program in the future also.
